PRO-LIFE FACTS

- Advocates for unrestricted abortion law reform have been flooding online newspapers with their personal abortion stories. Their common theme is that it is their human right to control their own body. Kate Cormack, media spokeswoman for Voice for Life managed to get her response published in Stuff. She argued that humane laws balance personal choice against the common good of the wider community. There should be protection for both parties in the pregnancy – the mother and her preborn child. www.voiceforlife.org.nz for more information.

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

The feast of Pentecost brings the season of Easter to a glorious close. Though we hear Luke telling us today that the Spirit was bestowed fifty days after the resurrection, we know that we've already spent the entire Easter season "in the Spirit". The reason for this is made clear by the gospel reading. In John's version of events, Jesus breathed out his Spirit on the disciples on the very day of his resurrection, 'the first day of the week'. Each writer has a theological perspective that accounts for his particular chronology.

We have not spent the past seven weeks waiting for the Spirit. The feast of Pentecost allows us to cry a final full-hearted "Alleluiah!" for all the Spirit has accomplished in us and will continue to do. We pray with fresh fervour the same response to the psalm that followed the story of creation at the Easter Vigil fifty days ago: "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth".
