REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

It's some fifty years since the English edition of a tiny booklet on living the Eucharist was published. Originally written in Dutch for a men's community dedicated to the Eucharist - hence its title Rule For a New Brother (London: Darton, Longman & Todd, 1973) its meditative and inspirational content found a broader audience.

Here are two excerpts.

"Be ready to break the bread of your life for the poor and hungry everywhere in the world. Keep nothing for yourself but share with the others all you have received from God's tenderness."

"The Eucharist sets you on the way of Christ. It takes you into his redeeming death and gives you a share in the most radical deliverance possible. And already the light of the resurrection, the new creation, is streaming through it from beyond. Whenever you sit at table with the risen Lord, it is the first day of the week, very early in the morning."

Break Open the Word p98

Beautiful God may we say "yes" to you, so that the Spirit in our hearts will once again be set ablaze.
Spirit of Wisdom, guide our actions so they tell of God's love.
Spirit of Truth, open our eyes to see the world as it really is.
Spirit of Power, enthuse us to work for justice throughout the world.
Spirit of Love, inspire us to respect the dignity of each person.
Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill our hearts.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill us.

Come, Holy Spirit.

Come.
